Lanikūhonua Cultural Institute

An Opportunity for Hands-on Hawaiiana Education

You and your students are invited to take a field trip to Lanikūhonua, one of the most beautiful beachfront settings on the Leeward Coast. Lanikūhonua will be host to a unique hands-on Hawaiian cultural experience for keiki:

WHO: Grades 1 through 5 may participate

WHAT: The institute will host a FREE special Hawaiiana educational program focusing on hula, music and cultural crafts.

WHY: To give local kupuna (elders) an opportunity to pass on values, respect and knowledge about the Hawaiian culture to local keiki, and to give keiki meaningful cultural exposure.

WHERE: Lanikūhonua at Ko Olina, O'ahu, Hawai'i (92-1101 Ali'inui Drive, Kapolei)
(Located between Paradise Cove and the Four Seasons Resort O'ahu at Ko Olina)

WHEN: September 2023 -December 2023
January 2024 – May 2024

Kupuna will be available to teach the program on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
(Arrival by 8:40 a.m.) The educational activities will last from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.
(Bus pick-up no later than 12:00 p.m.)

We can accommodate up to 70 students per session. Each class must be accompanied by a teacher and one chaperone per 20 students.

Enrollment is limited. Field trips are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. Transportation must be provided by your school. Free bus parking is available. Students should bring their own lunches, water and dress comfortably. Please remind everyone to wear sunscreen.

(For details or to make an appointment for your field trip, please call Lanikūhonua at 674-3360 or email sallyk@jamescampbell.com **)
